HOPE

“Hope is dancing when you can’t hear the music.” - Sr. Joan Chittester, OSB

The days are getting darker. This isn’t a surprise, hopefully. When you’ve made so many trips around the sun, you acknowledge the rhythm of life, and seasons. As you read this, you are entering into that holy season of Advent.

You may recall that Advent begins in darkness, with difficult passages when so many would really rather just cut to the chase and sing “Silent Night” and make merry. But that is not faithful to the season, or the texts each week. Mary’s pregnancy was long, not immediately finished. The journey to Bethlehem, likewise, was arduous and days on end. There is not much in life (if it is good) that is not worth the wait. Bread, wine, friendships, community... they all take time to develop and grow well.

As you enter into Advent, as well as this time of transition, I urge you to keep this in mind. Wait. Wait patiently, praying often for God’s will; for a heart that is ready to receive the infant Savior; for the heart of your next pastor to be readied also for transition and this new thing.

Because it is a good thing. You are good, as Genesis reminds us of God’s chant about creation. So keep hoping, keep dancing, keep praying, as God’s faithful children.

I continue serving in Christ,

Pastor Toby

As you may be aware, Session held a special Called Meeting on Thursday, November 1, for several stated purposes as there was important business that could not wait until the next scheduled meeting.

First, Elders approved a job description for a Director of Christian Education and Youth Ministry, and they directed Personnel to proceed with hiring a candidate.

Second, it was important for Session to approve a final payment plan for Pastor Mark, which they did, allowing him two weeks vacation leave as well as one week of unused study leave. At the same time, details of a Farewell Celebration were presented. On November 18, there will be one Worship service at 10:00 a.m. (at which Pastor Toby will preach); a reception will follow in the Friendship Room. A gift will be presented, and a basket for cards and letters from members will be available. Anyone wishing to do so may offer words of tribute and farewell.

Probably the most important purpose of this Called Meeting was to discuss with Jennifer Burns-Lewis, the Visioning and Connecting Leader from Presbytery, the next steps our congregation can and should take in the search for our next head pastor. She presented some of the decisions and options that lie ahead as well as the support the Presbytery will provide. Topics discussed included:

- A Covenant of Closure for Pastor Toby;
- Interim/Transitional Pastor vs. Bridge Pastor*;
- Revision of our Ministry Information Form;
- Financial outlook for a potential head pastor;
- Selection of a Pastoral Nominating Committee (by the Congregational Nominating Committee) and subsequent election at a Congregational Meeting;
- The introduction of Mr. Roger Hartzler who is our advocate with the Commission on Ministry; he will be our resource and will answer any questions or concerns that we have now or that our PNC has once they are selected;
- Important dates for presenting requests to the Commission on Ministry;
- Pastoral Care solutions during the absence of a head pastor; and
- The importance of communication among Elders as well as with the congregation as the process moves forward.

If you would like more information, please read the detailed minutes which are posted in the glass-enclosed announcement board in the Hospitality Center once they are approved. Also feel free to contact any of the Elders and/or the Clerk if you have questions or are interested in further details.

Respectfully submitted,

Judy Hollar, Clerk

Director of CE and Youth Ministry

We are very pleased to announce that our own Ken Crews who has been working with us as a Student Pastor, participating in our worship services on the first Sunday of the month and leading our Youth Ministry has been hired to a 3/4 time position as our Director of Christian Education and Youth Ministry. His focus will be Christian Education for all ages and Youth Ministry, which includes our Presbys youth group. Ken is still finishing up his education and preparation for ordained ministry and has discontinued his work with First Presbyterian Church of Portage. In his role with us, Ken is filling a newly created position. This position is not intended to fulfill duties previously assigned to Pastor Mark or Pastor Toby. Our session has determined that Christian Education and Youth Ministry deserves time, attention and resources to assure viable programming is available to our congregation and the families within it. Ken has proven himself capable of leading both; and we are excited to have him in this new role.

Dear FPCV friends,

As I peer out on the snow covered lawn, I am reminded that yet another season is upon us. This year isn't just another change in meteorological season, but a change in ministerial season. While spring may be the season we most often associate with new beginnings, this winter brings new beginnings in ministry at First Presbyterian Church of Valparaiso as I begin my new role as Director of Christian Education & Youth Ministry. And I can tell you, I am beyond thrilled to share in this ministry with you all!

As we enter a new season together, I want to share with you a few beliefs that inform how I understand ministry.

1. I believe that Christian ministry happens in community; an intergenerational community gathered around Christ and the command to love God and neighbor.
2. I believe Christian community is all about relationships; our relationship with Christ and with one another.
3. I believe relationships are a function of time; the more time and energy we commit to our relationships the healthier and more meaningful they will be.

FPCV is an amazing community of faithful Christ followers. With the Holy Spirit guiding us there isn't anything we can't accomplish in building God's kingdom!

I will do my best to use the talents and skills that God has blessed me with to be of service to the FPCV community, and I will be inviting you to do the same. If you have thoughts, ideas, hopes, or dreams you would like to share, please feel free to contact me so we can explore ways to bring them to life. I can easily be contacted at kencrews@fpcvalpo.org or call the church office at 219-464-4985. I'm always up for good coffee and good conversation!

Peace,

Ken Crews, Director of Christian Education & Youth Ministry

We are so excited to welcome Ken Crews to spending more time with our children and youth! He has so many good ideas. Make sure you make Ken and his family welcome when you see them.

Please look in the narthex for Family Advent Booklets to use with your families.

TRANSFORMING GOD'S PEOPLE

Matanzas Evangelical
Theological Seminary (SET)
Cuba

Marilyn and Mercedes

I just came back from my 15th trip to Cuba leading another team from The Outreach Foundation. I am usually asked a simple question by those who are surprised to hear that there is a Presbyterian presence there: "Oh, really . . . How did you find the Church there (i.e. what is going on with it)?" My simple answer: "I find that it is persevering. . ."

Often you meet a person on these Cuban journeys' who seems to embody this like Mercedes Cardenas, an 89-year old elder in the village church of Sabanilla. Rail thin with thick glasses and an effervescent personality, this Afro-Cuban retired school teacher models an inspiring life of faithfulness — of perseverance. She remembers the first Presbyterian evangelist who came to town in the 1930s when she was a small child. Ricardo Jorge would preach in the town square and the priest in the adjacent Catholic Church would ring the bells to drown him out. Jorge would speak more loudly as hundreds gathered around him. The bell tolled more loudly! A family near the square offered their home for worship, which was soon too small, so another house was purchased for this purpose. A neighbor child (Carlos Camps, later to become a pastor) came to Mercedes' home and brought siblings to Sunday School. Sadly, within only a few years of the "Glorious Revolution" of '59, most had left that thriving church, fearful of the hostility and discrimination which the new communist government exhibited towards Christianity. Mercedes was one of the few Presbyterians left in town — Mercedes was the church in Sabanilla. In '84 a seminarian arrived (Francisco Marrerro, later Dean of SET) and services were held in Mercedes' home for four years. Neighbors would bring chairs. "We gathered to know Christ," she said. A small sanctuary was built in '96. They named it Resurrection Church because "it had risen from the ashes."

Just last year a dilapidated house next door was purchased, thanks to gifts from First Presbyterian Valparaiso and First Presbyterian Fort Worth, so that this 36-member congregation can live into their vision for ministry to the elderly and to youth and so they could accommodate a Living Waters for the World system which makes clean water available to the community. “We want Cuba to know Christ,” Mercedes concluded.

So, what does this story of Resurrection Church in Sabanilla have to do with the Seminary in Matanzas (SET)? Well, quite a bit. Because this is exactly the context for which most of the seminary’s graduates are being prepared. It is always inspiring to spend time in Matanzas with the Rev. Dr. Carlos Ham, the President of SET, and to be reminded how this “outpost of ecumenism” (i.e. training pastors for Presbyterian, Episcopal, Baptist and Quaker congregations of Cuba, as well as many smaller denominations) uses its small, spartan campus to make a big impact for the Kingdom in Cuba. There are currently only 15 students in residence (seven are Presbyterians!) but the seminary serves over 550 students in diploma and degree programs spread around the island, most of them “aimed” to train lay leaders for the Church. With a crippled national economy, few of the students can take classes without scholarship support, and so the seminary must raise 95% of its budget from outside the country. But we were reminded of how gifts from partners like The Outreach Foundation go far in the Cuban context because the annual budget for SET is only $300,000 – for the entire seminary! [The annual budget for Princeton Theological Seminary exceeds $50 million.... million.]

Some of SET's June graduates

Carlos reminded us that studies are not the only part of the education of these pastors-in-training:

“Formation and service are the pillars of our seminary. Not only do students spend most weekends deployed to a congregation that is without a pastor, teaching and preaching, but back in Matanzas, they volunteer in the local orphanage and/or children’s hospital and participate in some of the cultural and artistic events for which the city (nicknamed The Athens of Cuba) is famous.”

One of the highlights of our time at SET was a Q and A with the students. Gathered in the only large meeting room on campus, we began with introductions: Yoelkis, here with his wife and daughter, had studied to be a lawyer and was the first blind student to study at SET; Adrianna was an elder who had already served as a lay pastor in her church when she felt the call to ordained ministry; Roxana was a Quaker from the eastern side of the island – both her parents had been pastors; Aneer, an elder at his large Presbyterian church in Cardenas, was drawn by the diaconal emphasis of the seminary; Susanna had worked as a mechanical engineer before coming to seminary – her weekend assignment was at the Resurrection Church in Sabanilla!

Dr. Carlos (left) with Outreach team member Jeff McDonald from Midland, TX

Returning to the story of Sabanilla, Mercedes, as we were leaving, encouraged us to come back next year: “I will be 90 years old then!!!” And she surprised us with two sprightly jumps in the air to prove, I suspect, that God still had plans for her for a while and she would be here to welcome us. May God preserve Mercedes so that she may soon see a full-time pastor installed in her church – and that would be worth THREE jumps, for sure!

Joyfully,

Marilyn Borst
Associate Director for Partnership Development

THE NEED

The Outreach Foundation is seeking gifts totaling $40,000 for programs and scholarships.

October 2018

Mercedes and the other elders and deacons in Sabanilla await, in hope, for a pastor. Perhaps God is preparing one even now, at the Seminario Evangélico de Teología (SET)

An inspiring and encouraging encounter with the students at SET

Presbyterian Weekday Nursery School ("PWNS")

November moved along quickly as we were busy with many seasonal activities. Our Pre-K class made good use of our kitchen making Stone Soup and baking pumpkin bread for their families. The children earned feathers for an Indian headband by doing kind and helpful deeds at home. They also made drums and necklaces for Native American Week. The month ended with our annual Fruit Feast. The children were excited to share some fall songs and poems with their families before sitting down to a delicious "feast."

Our 3-4 year old class also baked pumpkin bread for their families. They learned the nursery rhyme of "Old Mother Hubbard" and brought in food items for our "cupboard" as a community outreach program. Thanks to the generosity of our PWNS families, we were able to donate over 150 items to the Christian Food Pantry!

As we celebrate Thanksgiving, we remember many things we are thankful for. This month we are especially thankful for our new church playground that was donated by Kent & Betty Richardson. Our preschool children are very excited to enjoy our new outside play area when we have nice weather days at school. Many thanks to The Richardsons for this wonderful gift!

We continue to collect many types of plastic containers for crafts including, Crystal Light, prune, icing and ice cream containers. We are running especially low on family size ice cream containers in either round or square shapes. We also continue to collect metal coffee cans. Thanks to all of our church family members who recycle and share these items with PWNS.

We are very excited for the Christmas season. Look for our handprint tree and family Christmas projects decorating the halls and bulletin boards of our PWNS classrooms.

The Deacons have been busy preparing for the Advent season, and celebrating the birth of our Savior! Advent Bags are being prepared for all of our home-bound deacon friends, or those in care facilities. The bags contain 24 wrapped items that have been donated by various groups and individuals in the church. We are so blessed to have these donations to give to our friends so that they may celebrate the season daily during advent. The bags will be ready for delivery by our Deacons, along with flowers beginning December 2 (Sunday). Thanks to Jacki Phillips and Catherine Busch for coordinating the bags, and for Mary Jayne Shurr for selecting the festive Christmas flowers for our friends to enjoy.

The Deacons' Cookie Walk will be held on Sunday, December 9th from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. in the Hospitality Center. This is a festive event, so come get your holiday cookies along with some Christmas cheer! Price will remain at $6.00 per pound. If you are a Deacon or Elder, please bake cookies for the sale if you are able. Others who would like to bake a seasonal favorite to donate to the walk are encouraged to participate, too! Please drop off your cookies Saturday, December 8th from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m., or by 8:00 a.m. on Sunday, Dec. 9th. Thank you to Jason Gordon for his coordinating efforts to make the Cookie Walk a success! This is the Deacons' only fundraiser to help with their ministry, so please come and participate! We look forward to seeing everyone!

IF YOU LOOK FOR ME AT CHRISTMAS...

Author Unknown

If you look for me at Christmas,
you won't need a special star;
I'm no longer just in Bethlehem,
I'm right there where you are.

You may not be aware of Me
amid the celebrations.
You'll have to look beyond the stores
and all the decorations.

But if you take a moment
from your list of things to do, and listen to your heart, you'll find
I'm waiting there for you.

You're the one I want to be with,
you're the reason that I came,
and you'll find Me in the stillness,
as I'm whispering your name.

Love, Jesus

Please consider hosting a Coffee Hour at least one time this fall. It's a wonderful way to practice "Radical Hospitality" as you provide much appreciated treats or snacks to young and old, familiar and new faces of our church family.

Sign up on the clipboard in the Hospitality Center.

Partner with another person or family or get your small group or committee together to host a Coffee Hour this fall.

If this feels overwhelming to you, keep it simple with purchased baked goods or fruit, cookies or crackers. Set up by 9:30 a.m. and clean up once the 11:00 a.m. service begins. Contact Julie Golding with any questions at:
