LIBRARY NEWS

HOLD YOUR MEETING IN OUR LIBRARY

Our church Library is self-sufficient. The door is open so that you can drop in and have a quiet place to read, visit with a friend or two, or just sign out a book...or...

...Switch up your meeting place... hold it in our library for a change of scenery!

THE ROLLING CART

Have you seen the cart of children's books along the wall in the Narthex?

There is a clipboard on the cart so that you can sign out a book very quickly and easily. Grandparents are especially invited to borrow a book or two. Have it handy when you see the grandkids and enjoy a fun read together!

A Fresh New Read for All to Enjoy

This new addition to our collection combines page after page of short quotes from lots of Dr. Seuss' books that illustrate positive values.

Any age would enjoy this gentle quick romp through the pages, then feel positive about advice like "Tell the Truth" or "Expect the Unexpected," "Treat Everyone as Your Equal," or "Learn to Improvise."

WE NEED YOUR HELP

We need a church member who can find a few flexible hours a month to be our part-time librarian. Please leave your name and contact info in the library mailbox in the church of-fice.

Other People Matter: Connecting Through Character Strengths

Positive relationships, with oneself and others, have a powerful influence over not only individual health and longevity but also teamwork and engagement in groups. Some experts view tending to relationships as a form of self-care.

This FREE interactive 4-hour workshop applies a strengths lens to cultivating positive connections.

Participants will learn research-based practices to help them:

- discover why we must actively pursue the positive,
- > develop a deeper awareness of their unique character strengths profile
- notice and appreciate strengths in themselves and others
- align their strengths with daily activities
- > avoid unintended conflicts and stress resulting from strengths overuse and under-use
- build strengths in groups (families, church members, elders and deacons)

To prepare, participants should complete the free VIA (Values in Action) survey on character strengths (www.viacharacter.org/survey/pro/strengthbasedliving/Account/Register) and bring their results to the work-shop.

Saturday, May 4, 2019 1:00 - 5:00 pm (ET) Sunnyside Presbyterian Church · 115 South Frances Street · South Bend, IN

Please let us know if you are able to attend by registering at the following website so that our hosts can prepare for you: https://ourpresbytery.org/events/connecting-through-character-strengths-workshop/

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord to all the Saints of First Presbyterian Church of Valparaiso... As your dedicated group of Deacons, we continue to be blessed with opportunities to serve both those of you Saints who attend church services on a regular basis and to also serve a great group of Saints that are not always able to attend regular church service. As most of you are aware, each of your Deacons is teamed up with one or more members from our church who are not able to always worship with us in His sanctuary. We try to visit and pray with our brothers and sisters in Christ monthly or more often if possible; and we are blessed with the opportunity to take communion from His church to their home, twice a year. This year, Deacon Mike Becker was kind enough to review and prepare for us, the appropriate script, following the Presbytery Book of Order, for conducting this home communion service. There is no way to put into words the overall exhilarating experience when carrying and sharing the Lord's Supper with a brother or sister in Christ in their home. The home celebration of communion takes this experience of communion to a holy new level for those participating. We, as Deacons, are truly blessed to serve in this capacity. Even though this home communion visitation was accomplished on April 14, while it was blowing and snowing outdoors, a beautiful, live, colorful spring flowering plant was brought along and given to our Deacon Friends as a reminder that a change of season is upon us.

We, as Deacons, continue to pray for our congregation, the leaders of our congregation and our Pastor Nominating Committee. Today, was our second LIFT service and several of our Elders and Deacons were commenting how blessed we are, as the body of Christ, to witness the loyalty of the Saints attending church with enthusiasm, love and genuine fellowship for each other. Evidence of His Holy Spirit in this body is unmistakable and unavoidable... To witness this thread of Christ amongst us is truly a reflection of just who He is in each and every one of our lives. If a visitor was present today at this service and the awesome brunch to follow, they would have no idea that we, as the body of Christ at First Presbyterian Church, are between permanent head of staff pastoral leadership. An excellent job is being done by all in positions to fill the gap and we are grateful!

Friends, enjoy this change of season with the days getting longer and the temperatures getting warmer. Stop... Pay attention... Notice His creation when out and about and acknowledge Him in your relationships with friends and strangers along the way. Remember 2 Corinthians 5:20 reminds us that as His Saints, we have been made His Ambassadors for His kingdom to this world... Let His appeal to this world shine through you as we take every thought captive for Him. Please let us know if there is anything we as Deacons can do to serve you as the Saints of First Presbyterian Church Valparaiso... God bless you...

PRESBYTERIAN WEEKDAY NURSERY SCHOOL ("PWNS")

April was a fun month for the children as signs of spring emerged. We stayed busy reading our favorite stories, planting seeds, and learning a lot about the life cycle of butterflies as we watched our own live caterpillars become beautiful butterflies. Both classes enjoyed getting to spend time outside playing on our wonderful new playground. Thanks again to the Richardsons for such a wonderful gift to our church! Both classes also enjoyed preparing for Easter by making special bunny, chick, and egg projects. The Pre-K class showed us all of their kindergarten skills like rhyming, beginning sounds, patterns, etc., as we prepared for parent-teacher conferences.

We still have openings available for the 2019-2020 school year and are enrolling now!

Registration forms are available in the PWNS mailbox in the church office.

MEN'S BREAKFAST

Due to Mother's Day, the next Men's breakfast will be celebrated in the fall. Additional information will be available at that time. Dear friends at First Presbyterian Church,

Thank you for blanketing your neighbors with love through your congregation's gift this year! As each month brings the potential of floods and other disasters, I find comfort knowing that congregations like yours protect families in need. Your generosity covers someone with warmth when their own blankets have mildewed after a storm, or when frigid nights keep them from a restful night's sleep.

As a token of our gratitude, we'll be issuing a mid-year report showing where CWS Blankets went for the first six months of 2019. We'll be sure to send you stories of how these blankets make a difference between now and then!

Again, thank you for showing the world what it means to be a neighbor!

Gratefully,

Matthew Stevens Director of Congregational Giving Church World Service

A few words for the Kitchen Angels, Joy and Brad Dirks, Rose Ross, Lisa Vukin and Phyllis Crews...

Thank you so much for the celebration luncheon you orchestrated for our granddaughter, Angela. Wonderful food was prepared that day and so many folks brought in cookies, etc. I asked the family to arrive early at 12:30 p.m. to see the picture display of Angie's life; and we were planning to eat at 1:00 p.m. Our family began arriving at 11:30 a.m.; and very few were from Valpo. Most were from out of town, approximately 55 folks. The Kitchen Angels had everything ready to go by 12:30 p.m. instead of 1:00 p.m. Our family sat down to a lovely hot meal. This day was very difficult for us but your prayers, friendships and thoughtfulness lifted us up and God did the rest. At the end of the celebration luncheon, we launched a huge dove and pink balloon in the parking lot to say good bye for now.

May God give you each a special blessing for helping us through this time in our lives!

Thank you,

Dolly Trapp

PINES VILLAGE BOTTLE CAP DONATIONS

Due to the overwhelming generosity of the Valparaiso community, Pines Village Retirement Community must temporarily suspend accepting clean recyclable plastic bottle cap donations for their "Caps for Benches" initiative. Pines Village has been collecting recyclable plastic caps since 2015. They hope to be caught up with sorting, processing and delivering the caps to southern Indiana by the Fall of 2019, at which time donations would be accepted again. Pines would also welcome volunteers to assist in their recycling efforts. If you are interested in helping, contact Lynn Meyers at (219) 465-1591.
