Engaged locally and globally for Christ!

SESSION SYNOPSIS OF SEPTEMBER 21, 2022

A portion of this month's meeting was spent in preparation for the upcoming October retreat that Elders will be attending (along with members of the Vibrant Congregations and Capital Campaign team). Session was asked to respond to the writing prompt, "When I think about FPC, I feel hopeful about...," and it appears that there is much to be hopeful for and about in our congregation! You can look forward to more details following the retreat.

Elders were also delighted to speak with Denise and Mike Walker who have moved to Valpo and recently been attending FPC. It was with pleasure that they were unanimously approved for membership and will be officially welcomed into the church family on October 2.

Several MOTIONS were also approved:

Building & Grounds Team

- Approved allowing $950 for completion of the pavilion's new A.D.A. compliant east sidewalk.
- Approved rescinding a previous Session motion approval of $540 for an additional pavilion concrete pad for the purpose of enclosure of the trash container for security and visual aesthetics.

Membership Team

Approved moving eight people who are no longer worshiping with us from "Member" status to "Other" status since they have either moved or did not respond to phone calls.

Session

- > Approved continuing worship under the Pavilion on the first and third Sundays of the month through the end of October.
- Approved the application for a denominational survey regarding how the COVID pandemic has affected our congregation. Elders Sharon Kinsey and Harry Karabel will head the survey should FPC be accepted for the $2,500 stipend.

Joys & Concerns

- ➤ Both a sorrow surrounding a death as well as a joy experiencing the overwhelming support and love of our congregation for the grieving family.
- > Prayers for a long-time member whose health is declining.
- ➤ Joy that a 90+ year old member wishes to connect with a high school student speaking German!

If you would like more information, please read the detailed minutes which will be posted in the glass-enclosed announcement board in the Hospitality Center once they are approved. In the meantime, please contact any of the Elders and/or the Clerk if you have questions or are interested in further details.

Respectfully submitted,

Judy Hollar, Clerk of Session

PRESBYTERIAN WEEKDAY NURSERY SCHOOL ("PWNS")

Many years ago, Margaret ("Maggi") Mrs. A had a dream to start a preschool at the Presbyterian Church! After years of planning and hard work, Maggi opened the Presbyterian Weekday Nursery School in 1977. It became a quick success and it remains a vital part of the mission of this church. Maggi passed away on the 31st of August. She dedicated her life to children whether it be in music, teaching, tutoring and her work and light will continue to shine here in this church. The week before her death, we had a lively conversation about the preschool. She shared in my excitement about the new school year!! I have lost a dear friend; and I know many of you share in this sense of loss, but I also know she is smiling at the precious faces of the children who attend the school she founded. I like to think of Maggi as her great niece said, "I think Aunt Maggi is singing in heaven with the youngest angels."

PWNS opened for the 2022-2023 school year on September 6th and 7th. We have 10 children in the Early Learner Class and 18 children in the Pre-K class. This year, we are offering an extended day for the PreK class where the children can stay at school until 2:00 p.m. Some of the children bring a sack lunch then engage in activities to prepare them for kindergarten. All the classes seem to be buzzing with voices and giggles and there seem to be lots of smiles!!! We welcome back Dana Hansen from our staff last year. We welcome Lisa Montania and Megan Nelson this year. Lisa has lots of experience teaching, and Megan is a mom who loves working with children. Mr. Ken is going to be meeting with the children and having a special thought or story to share with them once or twice a month. We are blessed to have so many loving and caring people who want to share their time with us. God is Good!!

You are welcome to walk down the hall during the week to see what is happening with PWNS! We would love to share with you!!

DEACONS DOINGS

(submitted by Cathy Greenawald)

Our devotion for the last deacon meeting reflected on the thought that none of the qualities of the Christian life can be learned from a book. Rather those skills can be acquired by daily practice - an apprenticeship approach - and being around other devoted disciples. When we gather and have conversations about our deacon friends at the meetings, we find sustenance in caring for members of our church family but also in caring for each other.

As many of you know during the Advent season the Deacons provide a gift bag to those of our church members that have limited mobility or regular access to FPC's church life. The bag contains gifts to be opened by the recipients during the month of December. The intent is to brighten their holiday and send our church family extra love.

This year we will be preparing 25 bags, each bag to contain no less than 25 gifts. If you would like to contribute here are some suggestions that are always appreciated: shampoo, conditioner, nail care products, chap stick, packages of Kleenex®, note pads, pens, color pencils, puzzles, puzzle books, coloring books, devotional books, package of note cards or thank you cards, candy, gum, small flashlights, night lights, individual packages of hand wipes, hand sanitizer, mugs, hot chocolate packets, microwave popcorn, candy, novelty candies or cookies. We ask that all food products be commercially bought and individually wrapped. Pinterest is also a good resource for ideas. [Items we already have - eyeglass wipes, note cards, toothbrushes/toothpaste, flavored tea w/coaster.]

We will begin collecting items Sunday, October 2 and end Sunday, November 6th. A collection box will be in the Hospitality Center for your convenience.

HEARTFELT SYMPATHIES

We extend our heartfelt sympathies to:

- ➤ the Marc and Stacey Buehler family on the death of Marc's mother, Sherrie.
- > to Walt Alexander on the death of Maggi Alexander.

Our liturgists are an important part of our worship, and demonstrate how we all minister to the community.

CHRISTIAN FOOD PANTRY

August served one hundred ninety-one families which provided food for four hundred thirty-four people. Sixty-eight Kid's Kits were given out which totaled 214 provided during the three summer months. Bean salad kits, macaroni/chicken salad kits and cottage pie kits have been assembled and offered. All seemed to be well received. A lot of fresh vegetables from family gardens have been shared with the pantry. Some have even been shared with the customers at The Shop. Although supplies and monetary donations are still being generously given, the basics and extras are always appreciated. With allergies being activated by fall pollens tissues are very welcome. Paper towels and toilet paper are other paper items always needed. Basic foods like cereal, tuna in water, peanut butter, rice, canned spaghetti sauce and pork 'n' beans/ baked beans are always on the pantry list. "If you use it – pantry clients probably need it" is a good rule for deciding what to send to the pantry.

Thanks for any and all help,

Nan (founder) and Sharon

MATTHEW 25 REFLECTION

"MATTHEW 25 REFLECTION" presents information chosen by our Matthew 25 Team to inform and inspire our church family to actively engage in activities and with initiatives that reduce MATTHEW 25 poverty and racism in our local communities and beyond.

Race has long played a role in housing policy and practices in the United States, and Black Americans are denied mortgages at disproportionate rates. Though outlawed in 1968, Redlining, is a long-standing practice that continues to drive down home values in Black neighborhoods and deprive resources for communities of color. In the following article, Mott and Connolly do not live in a Black neighborhood. Their home is in good condition and in a good neighborhood. Still, they were unfairly deprived of the opportunity to refinance their home and better their financial position.

"An Absolute Gut Punch"

A Black couple is suing after a home appraisal came back undervalued based on their race By Debra Kamin, The New York Times (condensed and abridged)

Nathan Connolly, a history professor at Johns Hopkins University, and his wife, Shani Mott, live in the north Baltimore neighborhood of Homeland, known for its strong public schools and colonial architecture. A majority of their neighbors are white.

They believed that their house — improved with $40,000 in renovations — was now worth much more than the $450,000 that they paid in 2017. Home prices have been on the rise nationwide; in Baltimore, they have gone up 42% since they purchased five years ago.

According to their complaint, which was filed in Maryland District Court on Aug. 15, the couple applied to refinance their mortgage with LoanDepot in May 2021. The lender approved a loan (pending appraisal) at a rate of 2.25% and told the couple that their home was now worth $550,000 or more. LoanDepot hired 20/20 Valuations to conduct the appraisal. Connolly, Mott and their three children were home during the inspection. "It would have been obvious to anyone visiting that the home belonged to a Black family," the complaint reads. The appraisal came back at $427,000 (only $22,000 more than they had paid 5 years ago), and LoanDepot based its rejection of the couple's loan application on that low number.

"We were clearly aware of appraisal discrimination," said Connolly. "But to be told in so many words that our presence and the life we have built in our home brings the property value down? It's an absolute gut punch."

Months after that first appraisal, the couple applied for another refinance loan. However, they first removed family photos and other indicators of Blackness from their home. The second appraiser was greeted by a white male colleague — another Johns Hopkins professor — and welcomed into a home now displaying pictures of his white family. The second appraiser valued the house at $750,000!

All the comparable homes selected by the first appraiser, the complaint says, were of lower quality than Connolly and Mott's home, and the appraisal incorrectly stated that their home had not received any updates for 15 years. According to the complaint, he "cherry-picked low value homes as comps," and by doing so, he "ignored legitimately comparable homes with much higher sales prices" (homes that were identified as comps by the second appraiser).

PRAYER

Lord, guide us as we continue to explore and expand our understanding of the world as it is. Help us to search out and find situations where we can truly be your hands and feet in helping make the world a little more like it should be. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE NEWS

FINANCE UPDATE THROUGH MID-SEPTEMBER

Fall is the season of transitions – trees and flowers, weather, school, and of course, our fall ministries and missions. Faith Formation is what we do on Sunday mornings at 9 am, as well as in worship with strong teaching that invites us to grow as Christians, spaces like our PrayGround for kids, Presbys activities of service and fun together, Bible study groups, even knitting and crocheting together while we share life stories as Christians or gathering as young adults. Matthew 25 Team is hosting a book discussion on racism from an Asian American perspective. Our Presbyterian Weekday Nursery School prepares preschoolers for kindergarten life, beyond numbers and ABC's to include quiet hallway walks and talks to defuse anger and teach self-control. The Presbyterian Resale Shop celebrates 80 years this month! And we are preparing for the budget season for ministry in 2023, and plans for the grateful offerings from our God-given gifts that keep ministry strong.

Your giving moves First Presbyterian Church from just being a building on Valparaiso Street to being an active and generous congregation in our community. Your gifts of time, creativity, energy, wisdom and money bring First Presbyterian Church alive with what we do.

From January 1 to mid-September:

- Our operating income up to September 15th is $267,390 for 2022.
- Actual operating expenses to 9/15/22 are $334,898
- ➤ So the operating budget, income and expenses, shows a current shortfall of $67,508.
- ➤ Our funds from memorial and other special gifts for particular ministries and mission (i.e. temporarily restricted accounts) show a net increase of $22,489
- > Our current net deficit overall is $45.019
- > Our Capital fund holds $774 now that the pavilion sidewalk is completed.

Our financial data shows that during September, October, November and December our giving typically rises after the summer dip. If some of us are able and willing to increase our personal giving now to reduce the undercurrent of concern about deficit spending during this transitional year, it will strengthen our courage to envision our ministries and mission for 2023 as we proceed through fall budgeting. That vision for 2023 is beginning to emerge during our ministry teams and Session meetings this fall. Celebration Sunday is scheduled for October 23 to offer our personal or family financial commitments for 2023, and to celebrate by sharing a meal together after worship. We do much, and we can do so much more together as we look toward 2023.

—Linda Long, Treasurer
